VI. Discussion items:

a. New Business:

i. Proposed Amendment—bylaws (attachment) Errin B.

Secretary Christman: Directed by President Gonzalez to create the following amendments to the ASCC bylaws to address club concerns.

1. 10.02

Discussion Occurred – No Objections – Positive Recommendation by Political Development Committee.

2. 11.11

Discussion Occurred – No Objections – Positive Recommendation by Political Development Committee.

3. 11.12

Discussion occurred – Treasurer Jones: Concerned about students joining the club during the campaign period. Secretary Christman: clubs may reflect in their constitution and bylaws such restrictions and that this amendment simply provides the minimum guidelines for election procedures for clubs.- Positive Recommendation by Political Development Committee – No Objections.

ii. Exception to Clubs—amenity in elections Amir T.

GSA President Tavari: Proposed Amendment to exclude clubs from brown act section 54953. (C), to use anonymous ballots on voting. Secretary Christman: The previously presented amendments would allow for voting by anonymous so long as the proposed election code is followed. These amendments will have two more weeks for further development through the political development committee, encourages anybody who would like to take part of the development to work with Secretary Christman or other ASCC members. Secretary Christman is confident that the proposed amendments address President Tavaris concerns, however encourages President Tavari to work with secretary Christman to ensure that the issue has been addressed. – Positive recommendation by Political Development Committee – No Objections by ASCC Members.
