

STUDENT REP FEE REFUSAL FORM

The Student Representation Fee funds collected will be used by the Associated Students at Columbia Community College and California Community College Chancellors Office (CCCCO) to represent student concerns at local, state, and federal government levels. You may, for religious, political, financial or moral reasons, refuse to pay the student representation fee.

If you decline to pay the fee, you must complete this Student Rep Fee refusal form and return it to the Columbia College Business Office for processing:
