

Articulation Request and Agreement 2018-2019

Discipline:	Fire Science
High School:	Sonora High School
High School Course:	Wildland Fire Technology
Columbia College Course:	FIRE 1
Date Accepted:	2018-2019
Renewal:	2021-2022

This request and agreement is submitted for consideration of the following course as an articulated course at Columbia College. Students would receive course credit at Columbia College.

Directions:

- Complete a separate form for each course.
- Attach the course outline for the course.
- Attach the course final if course is to be considered for credit.
- Mail to: Dean of Career Technical Education, 11600 Columbia College Drive, Sonora, CA 95370

Completed by High School Instructor:

High School/ROP:	Sonora High School
Instructor Name:	Craig Konklin / Allen Johnson
Mailing Address:	430 North Washington Street, Sonora, CA 95370
Email Address:	ckonklin@sonorahs.k12.ca.us
Contact Number:	209.532.5511 Ext 115

High School / ROP/CTE Course Title:	Wildland Fire Technology
HS/ROCP Credits:	20.0
HS/ROCP Prerequisite(s):	None
High School / ROP/CTE Course Description:	This course will prepare the student for a career in the Fire Service with an emphasis on Wild Fire Fighting. Students will be introduced to fire service history, organization and careers. Specific topics include basic fire chemistry, wildland fire behavior factors, fire ground safety, the Incident Command System, and human factors in firefighting. Student will be expected to achieve competency in the basic tools used for wildland and structural firefighting.

College Course Title:	FIRE 1 – Fire Protection Organization
College Units:	3.0
College Prerequisite(s):	None
Advisories/Recommendations:	None
Course Content and Format:	See Attached
Competencies and Skill Requirements (Use additional pages as necessary)
At the conclusion of this course, the student should be able to:	See Attached
Measurement Methods (include any industry certification or licensure):
Successful students will receive the following National Wildland Fire Coordination Group Certificates:

Basic Wildland Firefighter
Introduction to Wildland Fire Behavior
Human Factors in Wildland Firefighting
Look Up, Down and Around

Successful student will also receive a Federal Emergency Management Certificate in Introduction to the Incident Command System

In addition see attached syllabus

In order to receive FIRE 1 Columbia College credit the student must: Pass the final exam administered by the Columbia College faculty with a "C" or better.

Note: Students that complete an articulated high school course and meet the specific articulation requirements for course will be awarded Columbia College credit. The transcript will be noted as CBE (Credit by Exam). In order to receive above credit, students must complete a Columbia College Application for Admission within six (6) months of completing the high school course.

Sample Textbooks or Other Support Materials (including Software):

Essentials of Fire Fighting, 6th Edition, 2013
International Fire Service Training Association

CC faculty Signature:

Date:

5-21-19

[Office use only.]

TOPs Code:

[Office use only.]

Internal Tracking Number:

Completed by Columbia College

Columbia College and Sonora High School faculty have met and agree on the terms of the articulation agreement.

Department Faculty Signature	x	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Approved <input type="checkbox"/> Not Approved	5/21/2018/19
CTE Dean Signature	x	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Approved <input type="checkbox"/> Not Approved	8/15/2018
CTE Transition Officer Signature	x	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Approved <input type="checkbox"/> Not Approved	8/15/2018
Admissions and Records Notified			8/15/2018
High School Notified			8/15/2018