

Columbia College Apprenticeship Initiative

Child Development Apprenticeship

Participants in this 2-year registered apprenticeship can expect:

- Paid on-the-job training (2,000 hours)
- Minimum of 15 CD units through Columbia College (Associate's Degree encouraged)
- Online course options
- Tuition and books fully paid
- Child Development Associate Teacher Permit and Infant/Toddler Specialization
- Certificate of Completion through the California Division of Apprenticeship Standards

Child Development Coursework:

- Child Growth & Development (Child 1)
- Principles & Practices of Teaching Young Children (Child 3)
- Child, Family, Community (Child 22)
- Health, Safety, & Nutrition (Child 26)
- Infant/Toddler Development (Child 42)
- Infant/Toddler Care and Education (Child 43)

Requirements:

- Apply to the Columbia College Apprenticeship Initiative
- Apply to employer partner(s)
- Follow hiring procedure as outlined by each employer and successfully obtain employment
- Enroll at Columbia College, apply for Financial Aid, and register for courses

Photo release forms on file

For more information call 209-588-5252

or email ccai@yosemite.edu

www.gocolumbia.edu

