ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE
CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the students of Columbia College, hereby establish this organization, the Student Senate of Columbia College, as a self-governing body to serve as advocates for the Associated Students of Columbia College. This organization is established in order to enhance sound student governance and citizenship; to express the general will of the students to the administration; to further cooperation with administration, staff, community, and other educational institutions; and to create and maintain adequate scholastic, social, cultural, and political activities in the furtherance of student welfare. The purposes herein stated are those which all of the College recognize as the privileges, rights and responsibilities of the students of Columbia College. The students of Columbia College, in order to form a more perfect self-government, do hereby establish this constitution for the Associated Students of Columbia College.

Article 1: Name

The name of this organization shall be the “Associated Students of Columbia College” (ASCC).

Article 2: Place of Business

ASCC shall conduct all official business in the office of the Student Senate located in the Ponderosa Building. Location exceptions shall occur during renovation, on-site meetings, etc.

Article 3: Authority

Section 1 - The authority of the organization and its officers as identified in the constitution is delegated by and subject to the procedures of Columbia College and the policies of the Board of Trustees. (Educational Code, Article IV, Section 76060; Board of Trustees Policy 7002 and 5015 of the Yosemite Community College District and the Laws and Education and Administrative Code of the State of California.)

Section 2 - Official activities of the ASCC and their Officers and Senators are subject to the advice of the Authorized Advisor.

Article 4: Membership Privileges

Section 1 - Active membership in the ASCC shall be granted to any student registered at Columbia College during the current semester.
Section 2 - All ASCC members shall be permitted to vote in official ASCC elections and be involved in club membership. (On Agenda Items)

Article 5: Student Senate

Section 1 - The affairs of ASCC shall be conducted by a student government composed of the Student Senate, Executive Council and Inter-Club Council.

A. The Student Senate representation shall consist of seven (7) executive officers and ten (10) senators to be elected at large.

B. Elected officers of the ASCC and any other position required in the Bylaws shall serve as the Executive Council.

C. The Inter-Club Council shall consist of the President of each active club on campus and shall be chaired by the ASCC Director of Club Affairs.

Section 2 - The officers of the ASCC shall be the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, Director of Activities, Director of Publicity, and the Director of Club Affairs. Chain of Command shall be established according to the aforementioned listing.

Section 3 - The Senators and Officers shall be elected by members of the ASCC (the student body of Columbia College) through a general, campus wide, election to be held once a year during the last two months of the spring semester.

Article 6: Term of Office

Section 1 - Term of office for Officers and Senators shall be one year. Terms shall begin July 1 and end June 30 of the next calendar year.

Article 7: Meetings

Section 1 - All meetings of the Student Senate, Executive Council, Inter-Club Council, and the standing committees shall be open to ASCC members and held as prescribed in the Bylaws with the advisor or representative of the advisor in attendance.

Section 2 - All meetings of the Student Senate, Executive Council, Inter-Club Council and Standing Committees, shall be open to the public and held as prescribed in the Bylaws and in accordance with the Ralph M. Brown Act with the Advisor, or representative of the Advisor, in attendance.
Section 3: All meetings of the Student Senate, Executive Council, Inter-Club Council and Standing Committees, shall be conducted only when a quorum of a majority of the total members of the body is present.

Article 8: Bylaws

Section 1 - Provision for the establishment of Bylaws to this constitution is hereby authorized.

Section 2 - ASCC shall have the right to implement, within the Bylaws, any positions, Boards, and Committees seen fit by this organization for this organization, with a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the entire Student Senate.

Article 9: Amendments

Section 1 - Amendments to the constitution may be proposed by petition to the Student Senate by any member of the ASCC, by a simple majority of the Student Senate, or by any member of the Executive Council.

Section 2 - A proposed amendment shall set forth the specific text of all additions, deletions or changes proposed, shall be limited to one subject, and shall not be illegal or inconsistent with any other provision that is not proposed to be modified.

Section 2 - Such proposed amendments shall be read in completed form at the first meeting of the Student Senate following their proposal. A referendum shall be held on the proposed amendment between fifteen and thirty school days following the formal reading.

11.07 Any club that does not have representation at three regular Student Senate meetings per semester shall automatically be expelled from Inter-Club Council and have club funds frozen. If an expelled club wishes to reinstate within the year, they may appeal the decision of their expulsion to the Student Senate.

11.08 If the expelled club or inactive club does not reinstate within two semesters, club funds shall be automatically absorbed into ASCC Club Development fund.

11.09 To reform, a club must resubmit the club’s constitution and request for chartering to be screened and recommended upon by the Director of Club Affairs.

11.10 All club officers must maintain at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA while in office.

XII. Club Development Fund

12.00 Purpose

12.01 The Associated Students have established a Club Development Fund to provide financial support to chartered campus clubs interested in promoting extracurricular activities for the benefit and well being of the student body, staff, and community served by Columbia College.

12.200 Rationale

12.201 The Club Development Fund will help stimulate and cultivate the formation; growth and strengthening of diversity oriented clubs as well as the organizational structure of the Inter-Club Council.

12.300 Funding Criteria

12.301 Activities financed by the Club Development Fund must be extracurricular and available to students and/or community.
12.302 Funding priority will be given to projects that further the following aims of ASCC:

a) Promote the formation, growth, strengthening and purpose of campus clubs as established by club constitutions and defined by present club memberships.

b) Promote social and cultural activity through entertainment and recreation for the general student body by encouraging involvement in activities such as dances, concerts, college hours, film series, field trips, cultural programs, etc.

c) Promote general awareness and positive interaction between ASCC, clubs, staff, faculty, administration and community throughout public forums, open houses, handbook, newsletter, publications, bulletins, etc, and d) heighten the political awareness and promote political activity of the general student body especially regarding issues which directly impact on students. (i.e. debates, forums, leadership training, voter registration drives, etc.)

12.303 Clubs interested in submitting a request for funding must be clubs in good standing. (i.e. timely re-chartering, consistent representation at Student Senate meetings)

12.400 Funding Policy

12.401 Club Development Funds will be awarded and accounted for in accordance to the following policies:

a) All newly chartered clubs shall be eligible to receive up to two hundred dollar ($200) seed money allocation. Said monies shall be used only for promotional items such as printing costs, transportation expenses and raw materials.

b) ASCC will consider funding in the form of a grant. A club may request and be eligible for a grant. It should be noted that ASCC funding does not preclude clubs from charging a fee at events. Grants will be reviewed in the following way:

1. In the presence of an Inter-Club Council (ICC), the ICC will form a Grant Screening Committee, which membership will exist of one (1) ASCC Member, two (2) ICC Members, one (1) student from large or ASCC or ICC.

2. In the Absence of an ICC, the ASCC will form a Grant Screening Committee, which membership will exist of one (1) Club Member from any club and three (3) ASCC Members.

3. The Grant Screening Committee will be chaired by the Director of Club Affairs or their appointed designee (designee must be approved by ASCC).
4. All Grants are subjected to the approval of the ASCC, Grant Screening Committee serves as an advisory committee to advise the ASCC on Grant Approvals. ASCC will have access to all Grants Submitted whether approved or denied by the Grants Committee.

5. Grants are subjected to the available funds and denied grants will be returned with an explanation to the grant writer.

6. ASCC will have the power to place caps on Grants on a semester basis, please see the Director of Club Affairs for the current Grant Cap.

c) ASCC will consider funding requests.

1. Funding request forms must be submitted by the clubs and obtain all required signatures ([Club President or Club Treasurer] and [The Club Advisor]). Once approved by a majority vote of the senate the funding request form must receive appropriate signatures (ASCC Dir. Of Club affairs and ASCC Treasurer).

d) All Funding, Grants, and Funding renewals will be considered based on the availability of funds and a club’s past performance in regards to the Club Development Fund.

e) For further funding, a club may apply for a grant from the Columbia College Foundation. Please see their requirements and processes by accessing their webpage at www.gocolumbia.edu

f) ASCC shall have the power to determine timelines regarding all Club Funding/Grant Requests with the general guidelines of a two week processing period, and once processed a two week period with the ASCC for discussion and action. Funding/Grant requests may take up to one month or longer to be processed through the Grants Screening Committee (if a grant), ASCC, ASCC Advisor, ICC, and any other entities deemed necessary i.e. Club Meetings, College wide Committees, ASCC sub-committees, etc…

XIII. Elections

13.01 The Election/Nomination Committee shall be composed of the members of the Political Development Committee.

13.02 The Election/Nomination Committee shall set dates, times, and places of all elections no later than four weeks in advance, publicize all matters pertaining to the elections, ensure a nominating period of not less than ten school days, receive and approve all applications of candidacy and present a list of candidates at least two weeks prior to elections.
13.03 All prospective candidates must meet all guidelines set by the Election/Nomination Committee and if they are running a write in campaign they will need a minimum of 25 votes.

13.04 The Election/Nomination Ad hoc Committee shall nominate eligible candidates if the number of approved candidates is less than two for any ASCC Officer position and if the number of approved candidates of Senate is ten or less.

13.05 Should the Election/Nomination Committee, after a reasonable effort, be unable to nominate a sufficient number of candidates for an election, those candidates approved shall be listed on the ballot along with a space for a write in candidate.

13.06 Elections for the Officers and Senators shall be held on Monday and Tuesday by the end of the month of April. All elections of office holders shall be for service the following year.

13.07 The elections process is subject to approval by the advisor.

XVI. Initiative, Referendum, and Recall

14.01 ASCC shall have the power to initiate legislation by means of a petition signed by 50% of the membership. Said petition shall be presented to the President of the ASCC who shall call a special election not later than fifteen school days after such a petition has been filed. A majority of those voting shall be sufficient to pass such legislation.

14.02 A legislative proposal originating in the Student Senate may be submitted to the membership of their decision when seven voting members vote to refer such legislation. In such cases the President of ASCC shall call a special election within fifteen days of the Student Senates action to refer, unless the proposal states that a vote shall be delayed until the next general election.

XV. Discipline and Expulsion

15.01 The ASCC and the President of the ASCC shall have the right to censure or remove from office any Officer, Senator, or Committee member of the organization for valid cause, said disciplinary action will be subject to a ratification vote by a simple majority of the Student Senate.

15.02 An Officer, Senator, or committee member can be censured or removed from office because of his/her violation of duty of the organization, a breach of a fundamental rule or principle of the organization, Student Code of Conduct or for any violation stated in the bylaws as a ground for censure or removal.
15.03 Reasons for removal from office shall be, but are not necessarily restricted to:
   a) Repeated conduct, which is unbecoming of an individual holding an office.
   b) In cases where conduct is the issue, due process shall be afforded the officer in question and an affirmative vote of a simple majority of the Student Senate members present shall be required to remove the person from office.

15.04 ASCC shall have inherent power to expel an Officer or Senator, if he/ she does not maintain the minimum GPA and unit requirements 15.05 The Student Senate shall have the power to initiate penalty actions. The recommendation of the committee shall be accepted by a majority vote of the Student Senate.

XVI. Judicial Matters

16.01 The Executive Council shall have the authority to create ad hoc hearing committees to review and resolve all judicial matters concerning ASCC unless matters require legal counsel.

16.02 All ad hoc committees shall be open to include representation from the Student Senate and students at large.

XVII. Student Trustee

17.01 In compliance with District Policy No. 2015, one non-voting student representative shall serve on the Yosemite Community College District Board of Trustees.

17.02 The student member shall be seated with the Board and shall be recognized as a full member of the Board at meetings. The student member is entitled to participate in discussion of issues and receive all materials presented to members of the Board (except for closed session). The student member shall be entitled to any mileage allowance necessary to attend board meetings to the same extent as publicly elected trustees. The student member is not required to give up employment with the District. The student member will be entitled to an advisory vote, although the vote shall not be included in determining the vote required to carry any measure before the Board. If a student member wishes to cast an advisory vote, it shall be taken prior to the Board’s vote. The student member of the Board does not make and second motions; attend closed sessions; or receive compensation for meeting attendance.

17.03 The student representative shall meet all the following criteria for service on the Board of Trustees:
a) Be a legal resident of the Yosemite Community College District at the time of application and during the time of service on the Board.

b) Be enrolled in at least five (5) units during the semester or quarter of application and during each semester or quarter of service.

c) Be in good academic standing (not on probation) and have earned a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or more in at least twelve (12) units completed at either Columbia College or Modesto Junior College prior to May 15 of the year of service on the Board. In the absence of an established GPA based on prior academic work, the most recent mid-term GPA or average of grades to date will be acceptable.

17.04 The selection of the student representative will alternate annually between Columbia College and Modesto Junior College according to the following procedure as outlined in YCCD Policy 2105: An election will be conducted at each college in accordance with the administrative procedures adopted by each respective associated student organization, except that all members of the student body of the District shall be permitted to vote for the student member. Each qualified candidate shall be listed on the ballot at each college. The successful candidate must receive a plurality of all votes cast. Following a reasonable period of publicity, a two-week period will be provided for interested student to apply for appointment consideration. The screening/selection committee will review the applications and schedule not less than three, no more than five applicants for personal interviews. If the minimum number of applications identified above is not received, the selection will be made from those who apply. Selection of student representative at Columbia College shall be completed before the end of April.

17.05 General criteria for consideration include, but are not limited to the following: previous experience in student/community activities, ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing, motivation for service as a Student Board Member, the student’s availability of time to serve.

17.06 If the student representative does not maintain grade, units, or residence qualification requirements, or he/she is absent from three Board meetings, he/she shall be removed from office with the option of an appeal process that shall consist of representatives from both student senates at CCC and MJC, one Advisor from each Student Senate, and both Presidents of the College.

17.07 If a vacancy occurs during the term of office, a special election will occur in line with district policy 2105.

17.08 The non-voting student representative shall serve a one-year term, which shall commence on May 15 and end on May 14 of the next calendar year.
17.09 General expectations of Student Trustee from the perspective of the ASCC:

a. Meet at least on a monthly basis with the Student Senate President and Vice President of both campuses.
b. Attend Student Senate meetings whenever possible on both campuses.
c. Communicate with College Presidents of both campuses.
d. Identify Student Trustee advisor/mentor within the first month of the student trustees term.
e. Chair the Yosemite Student Association.
f. Continue communications with both campuses (including both student senates, student senate advisors, campus admin, district chancellor, district staff, board of trustees, etc…). Communication options can include email, phone calls, and in-person meetings.

17.10 The Student Trustee is considered a non-voting member of the executive board of the ASCC.

XVIII. SSCCC Representatives

18.01 In compliance with SSCCC policy, the President of the ASCC or his/her elected/appointed designee shall serve as the delegate of Columbia College at Regional meetings, SSCCC Meetings, and SSCCC General Assemblies.

XIX. Financial Matters

19.01 ASCC shall maintain a balanced annual budget. Exceptions: Investments in office equipment, capital improvements, and business enterprises, which will improve services or guarantee long range increased revenue for ASCC.

19.02 All ASCC binding contracts shall be signed in accordance to District Procedure.

XX. Student Activity Fee (Fund 81)

20.01 The Student Activity Fee is an opt-in fee that is collected by Columbia College at the time of the student’s registration and deposited in the general fund for the student senate to use. This fee is used to provide activities/events for students on campus.

20.02 Starting Fall 2014, the Student Activity Fee will be an opt-out fee that will be collected at the time of the students registration, students may request a refund if they wish not to pay this fee.

20.03 To increase financial responsibility and transparency the ASCC must have at least one fundraiser planned and approved by the senate per semester before accessing funds generated by the Student Activity Fee, effective Spring 2014.
20.04 ASCC must review the Strategic Plan for the Activity Fee Funds each semester. The Strategic plan may only be changed after holding one Student Forum for student feedback, 2/3 vote of the Student senate and advisement from the advisor.

XXI. Student Representation Fee (Fund 82)

21.100 The Student Representation Fee is collected by Columbia College at the time of student’s registration and deposited in a separate fiduciary fund established per the California Community College’s Budget and Accounting Manual. Students may opt to waive this fee for religious, political, financial, or moral reasons. The Chief Fiscal Officer of Columbia College shall have custody of the money collected. The District may retain up to seven percent of the fees collected for administering the fees. (See Education Code Section 76060.5)

21.200 Purpose of Student Representation Fee

21.201 The Student Representation Fee shall be expended to provide for the support of governmental affair representatives who may be stating their positions and viewpoints before district, city, and county governments, and before offices and agencies of the state and the federal governments. (See Education Code Section 76060.5)

21.202 Examples of appropriate use are: a) paying for trips and/or conferences in which students representation to governmental agencies is supported, b) paying subscription dues that directly increase the ability of the Associated Students to represent the student body, and c) purchase of equipment and materials which will increase the ability of the Associate students to represent the student body.

XXII. Student Center Fee (Fund 83)

22.01 A student center fee of $1 per unit, to a maximum of $10 per fiscal year, is assessed to be used for the renovation or new construction of a Student Center Building. During the Spring Semester of 1992, the Student Senate conducted an election and the student body voted to assess themselves a permanent, non-revocable fee. These funds may only be used for the Student Center Building.

XXIII. Shared Governance
23.01 The President of ASCC is responsible for ensuring the full participation of ASCC in the Shared Governance Process.

23.02 The President of ASCC shall consult with the President of Columbia College, or their appointed designee on all matters that will affect the students of Columbia College.

23.03 The President of ASCC shall notify the College President, District Chancellor, or designee, of his/her desire to consult whenever it is believed that changes in college or district policies and procedures will have an effect on students.

23.04 The President of ASCC shall meet with the College President and/or the District Chancellor whenever either the College or the District has expressed a desire or need to consult on any matter, which may affect the students of Columbia College.

23.05 District and/or College policies that affect students include, but are not limited to:

a) Grading policies,
b) Codes of student conduct,
c) Academic disciplinary procedures,
d) Curriculum development,
e) The initiation or discontinuance of course(s) or programs,
f) Processes for Institutional planning and budget development,
g) Standards and policies regarding student preparation and success,
h) Student Services planning and development, and
i) Student fees that are within the authority of the district to adopt and/or change.

23.06 An important aspect of student participation in Shared Governance is active participation of Student Representatives on all appropriate college committees, task forces, councils, etc. The President of ASCC and the Student Senate shall share the responsibility for ensuring full participation of students on all appropriate committees, task forces, etc.

23.07 The President of ASCC shall fill all student positions on all college committees, task forces, etc. by September 15 and shall fill all student positions on college-wide committee within fourteen days of an opening occurring.

23.08 Students serving on college-wide committees must have a cumulative Grade Point Average of at least 2.0 and be currently enrolled in at least six (6) units at Columbia College during the term of office. The term of office shall be one academic year beginning in the Fall Semester and ending in with the conclusion of the Spring Semester or with the dissolution of said committee. The President of ASCC may approve up to three additional terms.

23.09 Student Appointments should reflect student equity and diversity and shall abide by the policies of their particular committee. Failure to do so may result in removal from office in accordance with the Constitution and by-laws of ASCC. The administrative representative of each committee shall be responsible for reporting any violation to the President of ASCC or the Director of Student Activities. The Student Representatives shall provide an oral or written report of committee activities, unless prohibited by law, to the Student Senate at least once a month.

23.10 The President of ASCC and Vice-President of ASCC shall be responsible for the maintenance of all records and papers pertaining to any aspect of the Shared Governance process.

XXIV. Quorum

24.01 A simple majority of the members of the Student Senate shall constitute a quorum. Quorum will automatically adjust in accordance with Section 10.07. The voting members present, unless prescribed otherwise, shall conduct all business.

24.02 Student Senate members shall be allowed to vote by proxy at their respective meetings in accordance to the following prescription:

a) Only a regular voting member of the body shall be allowed to hold or issue a proxy.

b) No person shall be allowed to hold more than one proxy per meeting, and issue no more than three proxies per term.

c) All proxies are good for only the meeting that they are issued for.

24.03 All proxies must be filed by 12:00 noon of the day prior to the meeting with the chair of the body for which the proxy is being issued. Copies shall be filed with the President of ASCC and the Authorized Advisor of Student Activities.

XXV. Parliamentary Procedure

25.01 In all proceedings not covered by its constitution or bylaws, Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the ASCC.

XXVI. Policies
26.01 The ASCC Office Policies and Procedures Manual shall be maintained by the ASCC office and reviewed by the Authorized Advisor of Student Activities.

26.02 The ASCC Office Policies and Procedures Manual shall be revised by the Student Senate on or before the first day of September and at any time thereafter to incorporate additions and deletions.

XXVII. Amendments

27.01 Amendments to the by-laws shall be submitted in writing to the Student Senate at least one week prior to the Student Senate vote on the amendment.

27.02 Two-thirds (2/3) votes of the entire Student Senate shall be required to amend these By-Laws
